Rising Stars Come to Frisco

Women's Professional Golf Returns to North Texas April 9-15, 2007

DON'T MISS THE CHANCE TO WATCH over 144 of the best women professional golfers compete in Frisco as they work towards earning their LPGA card. The Power of a Dream Golf Classic, an official Duramed FUTURES Tour event will make its second debut in Frisco at The Trails of Frisco Golf Club April 9-15, 2007. The Duramed FUTURES Tour is the Official Developmental Tour of the LPGA. Over 80% of LPGA players have competed on the Duramed FUTURES Tour since its inception more than 26 years ago. Frisco is honored to be a part of 2007 tour for a second year.

"With Frisco's wide variety of destination sporting events, quality golf facilities and affluent community, Frisco is a perfect stop for The Duramed FUTURES Tour," says Marla Roe, executive director of the Frisco Convention & Visitor's Bureau. "The Power of a Dream Golf Classic has given us a boost in tourism during April and elevated our visibility on the national level as great tournament site," continues Roe.

This is more than a tournament. The Duramed FUTURES Tour celebrates women's golf with a week of activities for local golfers. You can participate in one of three Pro-Ams which are played in a Florida scramble style and open to men, ladies and co-ed flights. You can also attend clinics for all levels, meet the pros at the Frisco Roughriders game April 9 and attend an inspirational luncheon on April 11 with LPGA Hall of Fame legend, Kathy Whitworth at Stonebriar Country Club followed by a Golf 101 clinic. If you are passionate about golf and want to make a difference to help these women achieve their goal, please consider volunteering as a scorer, marshal or greeter during the tournament.

Local corporate sponsors have the opportunity to be involved by participating in the Pro-Ams or underwriting one of the events.

"Golf fans in North Texas will once again have a chance to watch the world's top young women professionals," said Zayra F. Calderon, president and CEO of the Duramed FUTURES Tour. "Players are eager to begin their quest of earning one of the five 2008 LPGA Tour cards offered at the end of the season, and this year, they will be playing for more than $1.6 million in prize money."

All the net proceeds from the tournament in Frisco will benefit HomeAid and Camp Fire USA. Tournament tickets are $10 for adults, $5 for children and a 3-day pass is $20. All levels of players are welcome for the three pro-ams. Tickets and player and volunteer and registration are available at www.TheDreamFuturesClassic.com.

About the Duramed FUTURES Tour: Celebrating its 26th competitive season this year, the Duramed FUTURES Tour has remained committed to developing the skills and dreams of women golfers, establishing role models for youth and creating LPGA stars of tomorrow. With more than 280 alumnae as current members of the LPGA Tour, former Dura-med FUTURES Tour players have won a total of 314 LPGA titles, including 33 major championships. Designated as "the official developmental tour of the LPGA," the Duramed FUTURES Tour has become the largest international developmental tour and the second largest women's golf tour in the world. At season's end each year, the top five players on the Tour's money list earn automatic LPGA Tour exemptions for the following year. Throughout its first quarter century, membership has increased from approximately 150 North American players to more than 300 players from 31 different nations. The Duramed FUTURES Tour in 2007 will conduct 18 tournaments in 13 states and has raised nearly $4 million for charitable organizations since 1989.
